First Prize to Italy

“CUPID (EROS) AND PSYCHE”

This marvellous sculpture created by the Italian Antonio Canova (1757-1822) represents the moment of Greek Mythology at which Psyche is woken from her deathly sleep by the kiss of Eros. The dynamic sculpture conveys a deep sense of love, passion and energy as Eros sweeps from the sky to awaken Psyche from her slumber. Psyche throws up her arms elegantly to receive Eros' kiss.

Maximum card with an excellent concordance and lovely subject and message was created by Cezare Rialdi, President of the Italian Maximaphily Association.

Second Prize to Romania

100 YEARS OF THE WORLD SCOUTS MOVEMENT

The Romania Scouts Association “Cercetaşii României” was officially established in 1915 and it is one of the 31 founding members of the World Organisation of Scouts Movement in 1922, having formally had Scouts since 1912. Having accepted the principles and values of the movement, Romanian Scouts were active and present during World War I offering all kinds of help to the war victims. They marched in the front of the Victory Train, under the Triumphal Arch in Bucharest. In 1920, 67 Romanian Boy Scouts and their leaders participated at the first World Jamboree in London. In 1930 the first Romanian Scout Jamboree took place when “Cercetaşii României” had 45,000 members. In 1936 the 2nd Romanian Scout Jamboree was organised at Brasov. After an interval of 45 years (1944-1989) “Cercetaşii României” was again established in 1991, and in 1993 gained recognition by the World Bureau of the WOSM.

Beautiful maximum card with an excellent visual concordance and a message containing many principles and values was created by the Romfilatelia to mark the 100 years of the World Scouts Movement.

Third Prize to Brazil

THE ROSE

The rose, used first by the Persians, has always been valued for its beauty and has a long history of symbolism. The ancient Greeks and Romans identified the rose with their goddesses of love Aphrodite and Venus. It is both an ancient and a modern symbol of love and beauty. The red rose was used as a badge by the young marchers in the May 1968 street protests in Paris. Since then a red rose, often held in a hand, is considered to be a symbol of social democracy, by the British and Irish Labor Parties, as well as by the Danish, Dutch, Finnish, French, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish, Swedish, and Brazilian social parties.

Maximum card with excellent visual concordance created by Agnaldo de Souza Gabriel from Brazil.

Third Prize to Luxemburg

CALLIOPE AND HOMER

Calliope, the muse of epic poetry, is seated beside the poet Homer and a box of scrolls. The two persons form the central decoration of a wider floor mosaic of the Imperial Roman period (240 AD), found at Vichten and depicting all nine muses who according to the Greek Mythology were the goddesses of music, song and dance, and the source of inspiration to poets. They were also goddesses of knowledge, who remembered all things that had come to pass. Later the Mousai were assigned specific artistic spheres: Calliope, epic poetry; Cleo, history; Ourania, astronomy; Thaleia, comedy; Melpomene, tragedy; Polyhymnia, religious hymns; Erato, erotic poetry; Euterpe, lyric poetry; and Terpsichore, choral song and dance. The above floor mosaic is now a part of a Collection in the National Museum of History and Art of the City of Luxemburg.

The maximum card with excellent concordance and with many fine cultural messages was created by the Maximaphily Commission of Luxemburg whose the president is Joseph Wolff, actually the FIP president.
